

FALL/AUTUMN SEASON MINISTRY – September 2024

Caution strongly advised. This information may be very triggering for SRA survivors.

As autumn approaches, you may notice the occult survivors you minister to are becoming more anxious and potentially more emotional or needy due to a rise in occult activities leading up to Halloween. This is the time of year when fall seasonal programming may activate; meaning alters specific to the fall seasonal rituals may come forward causing a litany of problems. Issues may include an increase in body memories, (pain or discomfort in the body), as well as flashbacks and active triggers.

It is wisdom for churches and ministries, as well as survivors to be intentional about covering prayer during the weeks leading to Fall Equinox and Halloween.

It's important to prepare yourself and your survivors with safety plans. Two plans are recommended. The first, is to prevent call backs and attendance at rituals either in person or by astral travel. Steps should be taken to sequester cult alters, forbid astral travelling and avoid contact with unsafe family members and occultists.

The second plan should be for suicide prevention. This plan would specify who to call and what to do if feelings of suicide or self-harm are activated. These feelings correspond to mind control programs that may go into effect if survivors fail to show-up at designated rituals. Suicide and self-harm programming should be broken.

Be aware survivors may also experience "anniversary" trauma memories. Feelings of fear, anxiety and agitation may arise suddenly. Watch for signs of eating disorders, cutting, and insomnia. Calm and reassure parts that no one will be attending rituals, and no harm will come if they stay safely at home.

There are several groups that practice occult rituals during this season. These groups include Druids and pagans, Nazi and Neo-Nazi groups, Aleister Crowley and Thelema adherents, as well as Satanic groups. Did you know Anton LaVey was Jewish and considered Satanism an Abrahamic religion? This is why the Biblical Feasts of Rosh Hashanah; Tabernacles and the Day of Atonement are celebrated by Satanists.

Also note, both a partial lunar eclipse and an annular solar eclipse (known as a ring of fire) will take place over the next few weeks. These occurrences are of particular interest to occultists.

The most important difficult dates for Autumn 2024 are as follows:

Seasonal Programming, as the name suggests, involves 4 separate seasons. When the program activates, the alters from the previous season retreat behind the internal curtain and alters for the coming season move forward. This explains alters that seem to “disappear” and later “reappear” in the year. In the fall, you will have alters specific to the Fall Equinox, Halloween, and Thanksgiving rituals. They may trigger with the visual impression of pumpkins.

1. Be sure to implement safety measures before breaking programming and use a good covering prayer.
2. Break each season separately, one at a time, under the Blood of Jesus, at each brain wave state. For example: “I break Autumn or Fall mind control programming at Beta, Alpha, Theta, Delta”
3. Call forward the alters specific to Autumn programming for salvation and healing.
4. Remove the demonic on each alter.
5. Ask Jesus to integrate the alters that are willing to receive their healing.

Also be prepared to break “suicide” mind control programming and call forward parts for healing that believe they must die for breaking loyalty with the cult.
